

10 ways to

Explore ALEXANDRIA PINEVILLE

1

Have an Animal Adventure

Visit our famous Alexandria Zoo, have a farm experience at Ol' Mel's Farm or drive through Gone Wild Safari and hand-feed exotic animals!

2

Tour Historic Churches

Tour St. James Episcopal Church, First United Methodist Church, Emmanuel Baptist Church, or the oldest structure in Alexandria that survived the burning of the city during the Civil War, St. Francis Xavier Cathedral. Hop over the bridge to explore Mt. Olivet Chapel, the oldest structure in Pineville with Tiffany windows and adjoining cemetery.

Go Kayaking

Grab your own kayak or rent one! Explore Lake Buhlow, Kincaid Reservoir, Valentine Lake, Indian Creek or Cotile Lake and see why central Louisiana is known for its gorgeous waterways.

4

Get Artsy

Find your inner artist at unique workshops, catch an inspiring exhibit, bring a masterpiece home or discover the trail of hearts throughout the area! Downtown Alexandria is home to the Alexandria Museum of Art, River Oaks Square Arts Center and TREE House Children's Museum.

Catch Dinner and a Show

Grab a plate of local cuisine and get a taste of local music at Spirits Food and Friends, The Tasting Room, or on Kincaid Lake at Tunk's Cypress Inn.

6 Shop for Something Unique

With over 80 local boutiques, antique and thrift stores, there's something you can't live without, and it's right here in central Louisiana!

7 Grab a Local Brew

Order a flight of crafted brews from Fighting Hand Brewery Co. in Pineville or Huckleberry Brewing Company in Alexandria, both with a full calendar of live music, trivia nights, and pairing dinners.

Visit a Plantation

Take a step back in time and learn about haunted history at Loyd Hall Plantation or open-hearth cooking, sugar-making and more at Kent Plantation House.

Book a Tee Time 9

Tee off at one of 5 beautiful courses in the area, including OakWing Golf Course, part of the Audubon Golf Trail. Don't forget to grab some grub at the 19th hole!

Get Tickets to an Event

From the Rapides Symphony Orchestra to plays and musicals with Lagniappe Theatre Company, City Park Players, Spectral Sisters and The Usual Suspects, there are fun performances all year long. Check out the Rapides Parish Coliseum for larger musical acts, rodeos, and sporting events.
